

Rubber Boots and Shoes

When the rains come you will need them

Red Ball and Goodrich

are Quality Rubbers that satisfy.

Rain Coats, Slickers, Overcoats, Ladies' Cloaks,

Mackinaws

Men and Juveniles

Sweater Coats for Children, Ladies and Men;

Clothing, Dress Goods, and Furnishings.

FRIEDMAN-SHELBY SHOES

The all-leather line

LUTES MERCANTILE

Land and Lumber Co

Lutesville, Missouri

LOCAL NEWS.

Licensed to marry, Wm. M. Wagner and Purless A. Kerr

Break your cold or LaGrippe with a few doses of 696.

Mrs. S. C. Howard of this city has been suffering from chills and fever.

T. A. Shell of near Lodge was a pleasant caller at this office Friday.

No hunting or trespassing will be allowed on our farms. J. A. Taylor, W. L. Laten and H. W. Winters.

William Runnels of near Huskey was in town Saturday transacting business.

The Southeast Missouri Teachers association convenes at Cape Girardeau today.

Notice—No hunting, fishing or trespassing will be allowed on my farm. Roscoe E. Jones, Bessville, Mo.

Mrs. J. M. Zimmerman visited relatives at Bessville from Saturday until Sunday.

J. Monroe Robins, who is teaching at Sturdivant, visited his family here Saturday and Sunday.

Taylor Mercantile company has a car load of Hoosier Grain Drills that will be sold at special prices. Call and see them.

Marie, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Estes of city, was on the sick list the first of the week.

Miss Marie Wells of this city visited her aunt, Mrs. J. T. Wells, at Kennett a day or two last week.

Misses Ida Yount and Bertha Collins are attending the teachers association at Cape Girardeau.

Notice—No hunting, fishing or trespassing will be allowed on our farms. Robert Vangennip Jr., Alfred Vangennip and B. F. Brummer. 1 Nov.

James Stoval has bought the John Patterson residence property in this city and is getting ready to move in.

Miss Cleve Kinder was called to Buchanan yesterday on account of the illness of her father—Fredericktown Tribune.

Sanol Eczema prescription is a famous old remedy for all forms of eczema and skin diseases. Sanol is a guaranteed remedy. Get a 35c large trial bottle at the drug store.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Neuninger and little daughter of near town were pleasant visitors at this office while in town Saturday.

Attorney W. K. Chandler, Rev. H. E. Corbin and John Bolinger made a business trip to Cape Girardeau in the latter's car last Friday.

Tickling in the throat, hoarseness, loss of voice, indicate the need of Ballard's Horehound Syrup. It eases the lungs, quiets the cough and restores health in the bronchial tubes. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by all druggists.

G. B. Snider, cashier of the St. Francois County bank, was in this city a few hours Tuesday morning. He was on his way back to Farmington from Kennett and came over from the Cape, catching the train north here that day.

Ros-My-Tism—Antiseptic, relieves Rheumatism, Sprains, Neuralgia etc.

Dr. William Lages, Lutesville's clever eye, ear and nose specialist, made this office a pleasant call Monday.

Brother F. A. Wiggs, the Lutesville Banner editor, was a pleasant caller at this office Wednesday of last week.

Woman's friend is a large trial bottle of Sanol prescription. Fine for black heads, eczema and all rough skin and clear complexion. A real skin tonic. Get a 35c trial bottle at the drug store.

Louis Mayer went over to Cape Girardeau Tuesday, where he has employment at his trade for a couple of weeks.

Mrs. Fred Clappard and little son, "Buster" of Ladue spent last week with her husband at the home of B. S. Snider in this city.

$10 Reward—We will pay a reward of $10 for evidence that will convict any party or parties of stealing or cutting timber on our lands without authority. Lutesville Land and Lumber Company.

Dr. C. A. Sander took Edgar Sample to the hospital at Cape Girardeau Sunday. Mr. Sample is from Dongola and has been sick several weeks.

John Fels of near Leopold was a pleasant caller at this office Friday and handed us $1.50 to pay another year's subscription to THE PRESS.

Ora Hahn, a good citizen and a loyal patron of THE PRESS, called at this office Saturday morning and handed us $1.50 to pay another year's subscription.

Rev. H. E. Corbin wishes to announce that he will preach at Fairview Saturday night and Sunday morning and at Gravel Hill Sunday night.

The people of Gravel Hill and vicinity gave Rev. H. E. Corbin of this city a "pounding" Monday, which was highly appreciated by himself and family.

All you, who have torpid liver, weak digestion or constipated bowels look out for chills. The season is here and the air is full of the disease germs. The best thing to do is to get your liver in good condition and purify the stomach and bowels. Herbine is the right remedy, it answers the purpose completely. Price 50c. Sold by all druggists.

Mrs. Sam Bedwell of Sturdivant visited at the home of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Lizzie Bedwell, in this city from Friday until Saturday of last week.

Ouis Hahn went up to Fredericktown Saturday after some carpenter tools he left while at work there, returning Sunday. He says they are getting along nicely with the new building at Glennon.

John Hahn of near town, who returned from Illinois a short time ago, brought us a couple of ears of corn one day last week which measure nearly 13 inches in length. They were grown by T. A. Perkins of Danforth, Ill., a former Bolinger county boy, and he says he has 150 acres this season just as good as the samples.

Rev. Burris of Caruthersville has moved into the rooms over the Press office.

S. I. Spencer of this city is still in very poor health, we are sorry to report.

N. J. Wicecarver moved into the second story of his brick store building here, Wednesday.

L. T. Kinder, our efficient and accommodating county collector, will complete his tax collecting trip over the county this week.

Postmaster Wm. B. Yount and Mrs. J. H. Chostner of this city attended the funeral of their aunt, Mrs. B. F. Slinkard, near Marquand Tuesday.

Hon. Robert Drum and son, J. W., went over to Cape Girardeau Sunday to visit Mrs. Drum, who is in the hospital in that city. They report her slightly improved.

Miss Flora Richards, teacher of the primary department of our public school, is going over to Cape Girardeau today to attend the Southeast Missouri Teachers' Association.

Notice—No hunting or trespassing will be allowed on my premises.

John H. Zimmerman, Glen Allen, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Estes of this city and Mr. and Mrs. Vest Estes and little son of Lutesville motored down to Diehlstadt Friday and visited Mr. Estes and family until Sunday.

Dental Notice

Dr. W. A. Reynolds

Dentist, will be in his office in Marble Hill every Friday and Saturday.

After November 2, it will cost 3 cents to mail a first class letter, 2 cents for a postal card and 2 cents for a drop letter. The extra money will go to help the government with the war.

Beginning November 1, the subscription price of the Potosi Independent will be advanced from $1 to $1.50 per year. The publisher who wishes to stay in business is compelled to do this.

When the chest feels on fire and the throat burns, you have indigestion and you need Herbine to get rid of the disagreeable feeling. It drives out badly digested food, strengthens the stomach and purifies the bowels. Price 50c. Sold by all druggists.

Miss Marie Allen came down from Farmington Saturday and accompanied her grandmother, Mrs. Jennie Leadbetter, to their home in that city Sunday, where she will visit a few months.

We are indebted to the Missouri State Poultry Experiment Station at Mountain Grove, for a copy of "Poultry Facts Expressed Briefly." This bulletin will be mailed free to any citizen of Missouri who asks for it.

We received a letter from our friend, Loren B. Grimsley, October 19, who is serving Uncle Sam at Camp Funston. He says he is working in the Brigade supply office for the 164th Depot Brigade, and is busy almost day and night, but promises to write us a letter for publication soon.

A child can't get strong and robust while intestinal worms eat away its vitality. To give the child a chance to grow these parasites must be destroyed and expelled. White's Cream Vermifuge is guaranteed to remove the worms, also puts the vital organs in healthy vigorous condition. Price 25c per bottle. Sold by all druggists.

Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Sander, Hon. Robert Drum and Charley Elfrank motored out to A. A. Kinder's, on Castor river, Tuesday of last week. Mr. Kinder's health has been poor for sometime and the doctor went out to see him, the others of the party going for the pleasure of the trip.

Neuralgia of the face, shoulder, hands or feet requires a powerful remedy that will penetrate the flesh. Ballard's Snow Liniment possesses that power. Rubbed in where the pain is felt is all that is necessary to relieve suffering and restore normal conditions. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by all druggists.

G. B. Snider, cashier of the St. Francois County bank, was in this city a few hours Tuesday morning. He was on his way back to Farmington from Kennett and came over from the Cape, catching the train north here that day.

For Sale—One No. 5 Oliver typewriter in A1 condition for only $20. WALKER AND SON, Hardware and Furniture company, Lutesville, Mo.

S. R. Smith of this city sold Sam J. McMinn of Buchanan twenty-one sheets and ten pigs for $700 one day last week. They were good stock.

Mrs. Linus Hahn and little daughter, Bernice, of this city visited relatives in the vicinity of Grassy last week. Mr. Hahn went out and brought them home Sunday.

Mrs. Mattie Richards and daughter and two sons, Mrs. Flora, Lafe and Charley, attended the General Baptist association at Grassy last Sunday and report a big time.

Dr. Meehan, the Osteopath, who bought the Mrs. Jennie Sullivan place, has opened an office in Lutesville next door to the Bollinger County Bank, for the practice of osteopathy. Those complaining with ailments will do well to call and investigate and ask for literature. Consultation free.

County Treasurer Jesse R. Wells and little son Webster, and Mr. and Mrs. Charley Ford and babe of this city motored over to Cape Girardeau in the latter's car Monday, returning Tuesday.

Wanted—Black oak logs, lengths 8 to 16 feet $11.00 per 1000; Hickory logs, lengths 8 to 14 feet $14.00 per 1000; white oak logs, lengths 8 to 12 feet $14.00 per 1000. R. C. & C. P. Racine, Lutesville, Mo.

When you have Backache the liver or kidneys are sure to be out of gear. Try Sanol, it does wonders for the liver, kidneys and bladder. A trial 35c bottle of Sanol will convince you. Get it at the drug store and Saturday.

J. B. Welch, one of the members of the Castor township board of trustees, died at his home three miles north of this city, October 8. Internment was made in the Gravel Hill cemetery the following day.

Mr. Welch had been a sufferer from dropsy for several years and frequently during the last twelve months was confined to his home for short intervals. While his death was not unexpected it was a severe shock to relatives and friends.—Bloomfield Vindicator. Mr. Welch was a brother of F. P. and Doc Welch and Mrs. Gillie Thompson of this city and has many other relatives and friends in our county having been born and reared near Huskey.

Miss Marie Allen came down from Farmington Saturday and accompanied her grandmother, Mrs. Jennie Leadbetter, to their home in that city Sunday, where she will visit a few months.

We are indebted to the Missouri State Poultry Experiment Station at Mountain Grove, for a copy of "Poultry Facts Expressed Briefly." This bulletin will be mailed free to any citizen of Missouri who asks for it.

We received a letter from our friend, Loren B. Grimsley, October 19, who is serving Uncle Sam at Camp Funston. He says he is working in the Brigade supply office for the 164th Depot Brigade, and is busy almost day and night, but promises to write us a letter for publication soon.

Terms—Sums of $5 and greater cash on sums over $5 a credit of six months will be given, purchaser giving approved note bearing 6 percent interest from date. A 2 percent discount will be allowed for cash.

Public Sale

I will sell at public auction at the county farm, 2 miles northeast of Marble Hill, on Wednesday, OCTOBER 31, 1917.

the following personal property: three good brood mares, all in foal by jacks; a year-old horse colt, a mare and colt; good milk cow and calf; 8 head of sheep; 13 head of good hogs; 2 wagons and harness; buggy and harness; good saddle, flying Dutchman, corn planter, mow and scythe, section plow, breaking plow, mow-horse plow, pair of wire stretchers; 75 bales of hay and many other articles too numerous to mention.

Terms—Sums of $5 and greater cash on sums over $5 a credit of six months will be given, purchaser giving approved note bearing 6 percent interest from date. A 2 percent discount will be allowed for cash.

THE LIBERTY BOND

By N. WALTER MACINTYRE,
St. Louis, Mo.

A Liberty Bond in every home. A feeling of pride creates.

A Liberty Bond in every home. Means peace for United States.

A Liberty Bond in every home. Offsets what we abhor.

A Liberty Bond in every home. Will help to end the war.

A Liberty Bond in every home. Protects your home and land.

A Liberty Bond in every home. Will show just where you stand.

A Liberty Bond in every home. Is a bull's-eye kind of hit.

A Liberty Bond in every home. Is proof that you're doing your bit.

A Liberty Bond in every home. Is the Nation's wish—OBEY!

A Liberty Bond in every home. Subscribe for your own—TODAY!

"Lick 'Em; Lick 'Em Good." Well, son, the time is drawin' nigh, When you an' I must shake an' say "goodby."

It's hard to see you go so far away.

But, Lord, I'd hate it worse to see you stay.

And make excuses why you didn't go;

I couldn't stand for that; I told your mother so;

And she agreed, just like I knew she would,

so go ahead and lick 'em—lick 'em good.

I recollect right well, your ma and I,

Way back in sixty-one we said goodby,

I didn't hanker much to go to war;

But ma insisted—and 'twas better far

To go and fight than later to complain.

Just why I let my country call to me in rain,

She said, "Why, John, I don't see how you could!"

So go ahead and lick 'em—lick 'em good.

The soldier boy entranced at break of day.

The old man watched the long train steam away.

Then home again, and in the darkness of hall,

He passed beneath a